

John Pizzuro, MA, CFE

John Pizzuro has over 23 years of experience from a state law enforcement agency and, in that role, is the Commander of a Regional Internet Crimes Against Children Task Force. In addition to running a task force and overseeing 60 affiliate law enforcement agencies, Mr. Pizzuro has successfully investigated, managed, and supervised cases involving internet crimes against children, child exploitation, fraud involving non-profit and financial institutions, bribery, corruption, money laundering, tax evasion, organized crime, racketeering, homicide, terrorism, international narcotics, and human trafficking.

Mr. Pizzuro has extensive experience in interviewing suspects, witnesses, and victims during the course of numerous investigations. His approach to these interviews and countless personal interactions, combined with the use of neuro linguistic programming techniques, has led to numerous successful resolutions. As a result, this extensive investigative experience has provided him with a unique perspective on human behavior, and a deep understanding of the pressure that is experienced by law enforcement, their families, and the public.

Mr. Pizzuro is a certified Master Neuro Linguistic Practitioner and has an M.A. in Human Resource Development and Training. He frequently speaks to organizations and audiences on the stress that impacts the law enforcement community. Mr. Pizzuro teaches about personal development, leadership, technology, communication, and high impact performance. He inspires, motivates, and empowers audiences to transform their lives by altering their thinking.
