

Kathryn Rinker
Economic Crime Specialist

Kathryn Rinker is an Economic Crime Specialist with the National White Collar Crime Center (NW3C) responsible for providing live online and on-site training facilitation and instruction and functions as in-house Subject Matter Expert (SME) for the development of training courses. She provides technical assistance guidance on proper forensic and best practices for working with financial and alternative data. Kathryn routinely conducts public presentations about NW3C and liaises with external audiences. Prior to her current role, Kathryn was the Director of the Training Support Section where she managed the webinar and commercial training programs and supervised the NW3C certification program.

Kathryn has been with NW3C since September 1994 and has previously served in dual roles as the Manager of the Investigative Support Section and Internet Crime Complaint Center. Prior to her managerial roles, she served as an Enforcement Analyst III member in the Investigative Support Section. Other assignments and responsibilities have included Operations Supervisor, Special Projects Team Leader, and Special Projects Coordinator.

Kathryn began her career in criminal justice at the Virginia Department of Criminal Justice Services as a Victim Services Program Analyst and thereafter accepted a position with the Richmond Virginia Police Department as a Senior Crime Analyst. Kathryn is a Certified Fraud Examiner (CFE) through the Association of Certified Fraud Examiners and a Certified Economic Crimes Forensic Examiner (CECFE) through NW3C.

She received an M.S. in Administration of Justice from VCU and a B.A. from Virginia Tech.
